EMERGENCIES

In any emergency of any nature, come to the right side door of the press box (as you face press box), or contact any usher on duty. First aid stations are on either side of field beneath stands with trained personnel on duty. Telephones are located at the north-east, northwest, southeast, and southwest ticket booths.

RESTROOMS

Ladies' and men's restrooms are located beneath the stands and can be reached by exit from any portal. There are 4 ladies' and 4 men's restrooms on each side of the stadium and one each under the new west stands.

CONCESSION STANDS

Concession stands are located underneath each side of the stadium and west end stands and can be reached by exit from any portal. The stands handle soft drinks, sandwiches, cigarettes, popcorn, peanuts, candy, etc. Vendors also sell these items in the stands.

IN LEAVING

In leaving the stadium, please give utmost heed to the directions from officers on duty. New parking lots and exit roads have been added this year for your convenience. Please cooperate with traffic officers. Cars will be cleared from parking lots as quickly as possible.

Welcome to Clemson

We are delighted to have each of you with us today to enjoy the strong competitive college football of which we at Clemson are so proud. Clemson games are always eventful and memorable, and sometimes explosive and dramatic.

As you look out from this magnificent stadium, beyond the flashing eyes of the scoreboard tiger, you will readily see much of the tremendous physical expansion taking place on this old, picturesque plantation.

We hope, too, as you tour our campus and talk with our people, you will grasp the enormous good works being done here---and sense the steady growth of excellence in our educational programs.

Whether joyous or disappointed with the outcome of today's game, we hope you will leave Clemson with plans to visit us again soon, and often.

About The Coach . . .

Frank Howard is now in his 32nd year on the Clemson staff and the team representing the Tigers on the playing field today is Howard's 23rd Clemson eleven.

His stay at Clemson is unparalleled for a head coach and only Jess Neely at Rice has been at one institution as long as Howard. Both Neely and Howard have held their respective positions longer than anyone else in college athletics today.

Howard's Tigers have played in six major post-season bowl games—more than any other team in the Atlantic Coast Conference—and the Tigers also have the best bowl record of any ACC team with four wins and three losses.

In the nine years of conference competition Howard has guided the Tigers to an overall 57-32-1 mark, second only to Duke's 57-30-6. Against league foes only, the Tigers are 31-15-1 prior to the 1962 season.

The Century Club . .

Fifteen coaches who are at major football institutions (as classified by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau) have now won 100 or more games in their careers. Ben Schwartzwalder of Syracuse, Woody Hayes of Ohio State, Andy Gustafson of Miami (Fla.) Rip Engle of Penn State and Odus Mitchell of North Texas State joined the growing list after last season. A possible member during the 1962 season is Bowden Wyatt of Tennessee, who now has 95 wins. Coach Frank Howard of the Clemson Tigers ranks sixth in the nation for the most wins in a career. Listed below are the "Century Club" members.

"Well, let me put it this way — They're the bad guys and we're the good guys."

The Georgia Series

Two old warring gridiron buddies come face-to-face again today for the first time since 1955.

That October saw Clemson win its first game from the University of Georgia since 1914. The two teams had not met on a yearly basis, but the Bulldogs had taken 12 straight from the Tigers.

There had been some close, exciting games in between—such as the 14-7 contest in 1954, or the 21-7 tussle in 1944. And there had been some embarrassing days for the Tigers—such as the 55-0 drubbing in 1920, or the six straight games (from 1915 through 1927) that the Tigers were held scoreless.

Or take the game in 1932 when Georgia won 32-18 in which a one-in-a-million spectacular happened—back-to-back kick-off returns for touchdowns. The old Notre Damer, Harry Mehre, was coaching the Bulldogs then and Jess Neely was suffering through his second year at Clemson.

Clemson has won 10 of the 32 previous games played with two ending in ties. But the Tigers grabbed most of their wins during the early part of the series, which started in 1897.

Coach Johnny Griffith, a 1949 graduate of Georgia and now in his second year as boss man of the Bulldogs, brings his club into "Death Valley" with a 1-1-1 mark. The loss was to nationally ranked Alabama. The second week of the season saw a 10-0 triumph over Vanderbilt and last Saturday night the Bulldogs were tied by South Carolina.

Clemson enters the game with a 2-1 mark with conference triumphs over N. C. State and Wake Forest and an opening loss to high-ranking Georgia Tech.

A flashback of the last game:

A 57-yard drive in six plays netted Clemson its first score midway in the first quarter. A 25-yard pass from Don King to Joe Pagliei brought on six points.

Early in the second quarter Charlie Bussey fell on a Bulldog fumble 19 yards from the goal. On the fifth play, Billy O'Dell plunged over from the three.

Before the Bulldogs could muster a drive, the Tigers put another score on the board in the third quarter. A Georgia punt went on the Clemson 13. With O'Dell, Joel Wells and Jim Coleman running and King directing the passing attack, the Tigers moved to the one where O'Dell crashed over.

Clemson entered the fourth quarter with a 19-0 lead and a fumble on the Tiger 30 set up the only Georgia score with 2:30 gone in the quarter. Young passed to Roberts 10 yards and a score.

An interception exchange gave the Tigers their final tally. Wells had one intercepted on the goal line and Georgia returned it to the five. Three plays later Walt Laraway intercepted a Bulldog pass on the five and ran for a score.

Should a gentleman offer a Tiparillo to a lady?

What is the story of this remarkable new smoke by Robt. Burns?

If she enjoys smoking a cigarette, why not? The Tiparillo* is slim, neat, mild as mild can be. Go ahead, offer her one.

But although Tiparillo is not "men only" it is "men mainly."

And that new pliable, pearly tip pays more than just lip service to your smoking pleasure. It's your mouthpiece to the careful blending of choicest imported tobaccos. Tiparillo has the kind of flavor you don't have to inhale to enjoy... peace of mind in every puff. Moreover, there's the exclusive veinless Ultra Cigar Wrapper* that burns so evenly and smoothly it insures complete mildness.

The surprisingly whiter ash is visible evidence of Tiparillo mildness. And that's your best smoking tip for today. Only 5¢ each. ONLY 5¢? Yes, only 5¢.

FWAA President Tells . . .

Why I Like College Football

by BERT McGRANE

President of Football Writers Association of America

Des Moines Register & Tribune

Old memories must be best. They last longer. This conclusion popped up on a lazy morning as I played mental hop-scotch through the years in search of the half dozen most memorable football games I've watched from assorted pressboxes. My list, I discovered, included three games that were played within the past decade. For the others I reached back 19, 31 and 36 years.

Every college generation, I reasoned, has contributed to the fascinating fiber of college football.

It may be readily assumed that the elements involved in my "big" games are scoring, tough competition and drama galore. There are some other factors but the fury of the battle and the remarkable surge of a team that isn't supposed to win will never be overshadowed. Perhaps the one thing above all others that makes college football such a captivating sport is its uncertainty. You just never can tell.

Just why does a fellow get all steamed up over college football, and stay that way year after year?

In my case football is by far the most spectacular spectator sport. It is a game of strategy and violence. Good football must be played with the precision of golf, or baseball. It involves the dynamic action of boxing, or hockey.

Football compels attention.

Not long ago a television network scheduled a late-season game for presentation on the screens of the nation. Seems like the teams were Utah and Utah State, and many a fan in the Big Ten country growled. But they watched the telecast and were intrigued. The scoffers stayed to cheer. The wide-open play was a lasting reminder that the football in the Rocky Mountain sector, or any other area is all engrossing.

When we say football we refer to the college brand. We had it long before the professional game became a factor. Indeed, the highly specialized professional game carries an appeal of its own, but it could hardly have materialized without the contributions of the schools.

College football, with its unpredictable aspects, has no rival. Just try to name a professional sport in which 30 or more writers and a conference commissioner are ordered off a practice field. It happened in the Big Ten. There is novelty and fun, sometimes even consternation.

A lasting memory centers around an incident at Harvard, during the opening game of 1950. Platoon football was going strong, so an ingenious band master applied the same principle to his band. He substituted by platoons. A blast of the whistle and the trombone players raced off the field and replacements with more trombones raced in, etc.

In a game on the West Coast we sensed the anguish of the followers of a great school. A rival had "loused up" the card section operation so that it spelled out the name of the rival rather than its own.

We recall that during the war years the commander of a great training station usurped the pressbox for his party, when it started to rain during a game. Football isn't all live or die. It has its variety.

Football, as I see it, is a vast composite, responsible to no individual for its appeal but owing something and giving something to every man who plays.

The Heffelfingers and the Brickleys and Poes; the Nagurskis, the Sammy Baughs and the Doak Walkers; the Harmons, the Berwangers and the Hopalong Cassadys—these and the unsung thousands applied the teachings and carried on the demonstrations of technique for the Camps, the Ropers, the Houghtons, the Staggs, the Rocknes, the Biermans, the Wilkinsons, the Bibles, the Blaiks, the Bells, the Joneses and the Cavanaughs. And for all others who have put football teams on the field.

For more than 80 years college football has been advancing toward its place as a national institution in America. Its traditions, its drama and its intense rivalries should add to its prestige as its history lengthens.

1962 RULES CHANGES

by CHARLES W. TUCKER, JR.

1961's number one controversy provokes the chief rules change for 1962

The Football Rules Committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association has added no new rules for 1962, but they have amended several of the old rules, which will give them a new look from the point of view of the grid fan, and which should be mentioned here in order to clarify what has happened. There have also been the usual number of technical changes in wording and rewriting to further simplify the application of the rules, but these will not be noticed by the spectator. Of the four or five changes in this year's rules, the one which will be the most conspicuous is the change in the rule governing the extension of a period; and it may be well to refresh our memories on this one in light of the controversy that developed in the Notre Dame-Syracuse game last November.

Syracuse was leading 15-14; and on the last play of the game Notre Dame tried a field goal, which failed. Time had expired on the play, but one of the officials called a penalty on a Syracuse end for roughing the holder of the kick. After a 15-yard penalty, Notre Dame tried another field goal, and this one was successful—thereby winning the game for them 17-15. After the game was over, a considerable controversy developed as to whether Notre Dame should have had another play. The rule governing extension of a period is rather long and somewhat complicated to the average fan, but there is one part of the rule which specifically states that the period shall not end if there is a foul on the last play by team B while team A is in possession of the ball. The Official N.C.A.A. Rules Interpretations contained ambiguous statements as to what constituted "possession" in the case of an attempted field goal. This led to the technical dispute that caused so much discussion last fall. The Rules Committee has now amended this rule in order to prevent any future occurrence of such a rhubarb. They have simply eliminated that part of the rule which reads, "a foul by team B while team A is in possession." In other words, if team B fouls team A on the last play of the game this year, team A gets another play regardless of whether they had kicked or passed the ball.

Among the other changes which will be noticed by you astute fans are the following:

TEAM A MAY NOW DOWN THEIR OWN SCRIMMAGE KICK WITHIN TEAM B'S 10-YARD LINE WITHOUT PENALTY.

For many years, team A has not been permitted to touch its scrimmage kick within team B's 10-yard line without penalty. The penalty was a touchback which gave team B the ball on its 20-yard line, first and ten to go. In years gone by, one of the great weapons in offensive football was a good kicker who could get that ball high enough to get his ends down the field and far enough to put it close to the opponent's goal line. If the ends were successful in downing the ball close to the goal line, team B was in the hole with their back to the wall. Because of the fact that there was vicious blocking by both teams, around the ball, the defense blocking out the offensive players in the hope that the ball would roll across the goal line for a touchback, and the offense trying to block out the defensive players in an attempt to get at the ball, the rule was put in the book restricting the offensive team from touching the ball within team B's 10-yard line. The Committee has now decided to change the rule back to where it was many years ago with no restriction on the kicking team attempting to down their own kick. So, we can assume there will be plenty of action on a punted ball near the goal line this season.

PENALTY FOR ILLEGAL SHIFT REDUCED FROM 15 YARDS TO 5 YARDS.

This is the second time this penalty has been changed in the past several years. On many plays there is a very fine distinction as to what is an illegal shift, which carries a 15-yard penalty, and an illegal motion, which carries a 5-yard penalty. Most officials are reluctant to take 15 yards away from a team on a borderline decision for an infraction no more serious than one which carries a 5-yard penalty. For this reason, it is quite possible that there were illegal shifts which were not penalized. By reducing the penalty on an illegal shift from 15 yards to 5 yards, it is now in the same category with illegal motion and will probably be penalized more frequently in the future.

"DELIVER A BLOW" INSERTED IN THE DISQUALIFYING FOULS RULE.

Last year, the disqualification rule stated that no player should strike an opponent with his fist, extended forearm, elbow or locked hands, or kick or knee an opponent. Penalty—15 yards and disqualification from further participation in the game. Apparently, the language of striking an opponent with extended forearm, elbow or locked hands was not strong enough, so they have inserted the words "deliver a blow" with extended forearm, elbow or locked hands which is quite clear in its language.

PENALTY FOR ILLEGALLY KICKING A BALL IN PLAYER-POSSESSION INCREASED FROM 5 TO 15 YARDS.

Last year, the penalty for illegally kicking a ball in player-possession was 5 yards from the spot. This year, the rule has been changed to 15 yards from the previous spot. In other words, if a defensive tackle broke through the line of scrimmage and deliberately kicked the ball out of the hands of an opponent who was holding it for a place kick, the penalty would now be 15 yards from the spot where the ball was snapped. The rule also goes further and states that this year no player shall deliberately kick a forward pass. This is a good trick if you can do it, but not in the eyes of the Rules Committee, as they have prescribed a 15-yard penalty from the previous spot for such an act. The penalty for deliberately kicking a free ball remains the same—offended team's ball at the spot of the foul.

Strongest Line in Any League

Precision chemistry does it. It's the reason behind the widespread acceptance of Texize products for the textile industry... and the reason that Texize is able to produce the finest line of work-saving household products on the market today.

That's why textile people and homemakers alike say...

NOTHING WORKS LIKE A TEXIZE PRODUCT

Take a puff...it's Springtime!

Salem refreshes your taste —air-softens every puff

In the rich taste of a Salem cigarette, you'll notice a softness very like the clear, mild springtime air. You'll find Salem refreshes your taste, just as springtime refreshes you.
